Adoption of the agenda

The agenda was adopted.

The situation in Cyprus

Letter dated 28 June 1994 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1994/785)

The President: The Security Council will now begin its consideration of the item on its agenda. The Security Council is meeting in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations.

Members of the Council have before them the report of the Secretary-General on his Mission of Good Offices in Cyprus, document S/1994/629, and the letter dated 28 June 1994 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council, document S/1994/785.

Members of the Council also have before them document S/1994/895, which contains the text of a draft resolution prepared in the course of the Council's prior consultations.

In this connection, I would like to invite the attention of Council members to a typographical error which appears in the English and Russian versions of the draft resolution. In the fifth line of operative paragraph 2, the phrase "Security Council resolution" should be "Security Council resolutions" in the plural.

It is my understanding that the Council is ready to proceed to the vote on the draft resolution before it. Unless I hear any objection, I shall put the draft resolution to the vote.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

A vote was taken by show of hands.

In favour:

Argentina, Brazil, China, Czech Republic, Djibouti, France, New Zealand, Nigeria, Oman, Pakistan, Russian Federation, Spain, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America

The President: There were 14 votes in favour. The draft resolution has been adopted as resolution 939 (1994).

There are no speakers inscribed on my list. The Security Council has thus concluded the present stage of its consideration of the item on the agenda.

The meeting rose at 3.55 p.m.
